

Finally, we experienced life in Costa Rica. These photographs help us remember: The joy of being United Methodist and that life in another country sometimes looks different than what we know and to which we are accustomed.

Top and Middle Left: In spite of the language barrier, our Costa Rican sisters and brothers welcomed us and blessed us with an uplifting worship experience.
Middle Right and Bottom: Smaller homes and yards, gated and secure entrances and a different way of trash collection were a few of the noticeable difference in residential life.
